Understanding Your Chase Travel Booking Before You Cancel

Before we dive into the step-by-step instructions, it's essential to understand what happens when you cancel a flight booked through Chase Travel. Chase acts as a travel agency or intermediary (powered by platforms like Expedia). This means:

- Your ticket is subject to the cancellation rules of the specific airline you booked.
- The refund you receive depends on the fare type you purchased (e.g., Basic Economy, Main Cabin, Refundable, etc.).
- Most cancellations must be processed through Chase Travel, not directly with the airline.

The answer to how to cancel a flight booked through Chase Travel step by step will vary slightly depending on whether you are eligible for a cash refund, a travel credit, or a points redeposit.

Method 1: How to Cancel a Flight Online (Step by Step)

For many bookings, the Chase Travel portal offers a convenient self-service cancellation option. Here is how to cancel a flight booked through Chase Travel step by step using the online method.

Step 1: Log In to Your Chase Account

Begin by logging into your Chase account. You can do this either on the Chase website (Chase.com) or through the Chase mobile app. Ensure you are using the same login credentials you used to book the flight.

Step 2: Navigate to Your Travel Bookings

- Locate and click on the Ultimate Rewards section. This is typically found in the main navigation menu.
- Select the "Travel" tab.
- Click on "Your Trips" or "My Bookings." This will display a list of all your upcoming and past travel reservations made through Chase Travel.

Step 3: Find the Flight You Want to Cancel

Scroll through your upcoming trips and locate the specific flight reservation you wish to cancel. Click on the booking to open the detailed itinerary.

Step 4: Initiate the Cancellation

Look for a button that says "Cancel Flight," "Cancel Booking," or "Cancel Trip." The exact wording may vary slightly. Click on this button to begin the cancellation process. This is a critical step in how to cancel a flight booked through Chase Travel step by step.

Step 5: Review the Cancellation Policy and Refund Amount

Before you finalize anything, the system will display the cancellation rules for your specific ticket. It will show:

- Any applicable cancellation fees.
- The estimated refund amount.
- Whether the refund will go back to your original payment method or as a travel credit.

Read this carefully. This is where you confirm the financial outcome of your cancellation. If the fare is non-refundable, you may only receive a credit for future travel (minus any fees).

Step 6: Confirm the Cancellation

If you agree to the terms and understand the refund amount, click the final confirmation button to complete the cancellation. You should receive a cancellation confirmation email from Chase Travel shortly. Keep this email for your records.
