The Players Championship will kick off on Thursday at TPC Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida. This year, a field of 123 golfers will battle for the biggest title outside of the major championships. This season's Players Championship field consists of 46 of the top 50 golfers in the world, who will be needed to combat TPC Sawgrass's world-famous 137-yard, par-3 iconic island green.

This week's Players Championship 2026 live streams from TPC Sawgrass, Florida, feature the biggest PGA tournament so far this season and arguably golf's most iconic hole, the watery 17th. Golf's unofficial fifth major, it will include Rory McIlroy seeking to defend his crown, with world number one Scottie Scheffler drawn in a stellar group with Tommy Fleetwood and Justin Thomas.

McIlroy overcame JJ Spaun in a nerve-jangling playoff 12 months ago that also set the Ulsterman on his way to winning the Masters and complete his major set. World number one Scheffler will be determined to get his hands back on the trophy he won in 2023 and 2024, with the American paired with world No.3 Fleetwood and 2021 Sawgrass winner Thomas.

Elsewhere, plenty of eyes will be on Brooks Koepka, who makes his return to The Players Championships for the first time since 2022 after redefection from LIV Golf. The 2015 winner Rickie Fowler has started the season in solid form and could be another bolter.

The best players in the world will tee it up in Florida, with the iconic 17th – a par three over water to an island green – one of the most picturesque and famous holes in golf. Definitely not one to miss.

The Players Championship 2026 is being live streamed in its entirety on ESPN+, which is also the place to watch featured groups, featured holes and marquee group coverage. Monthly subscriptions start at $11.99, or you can go all out for an Unlimited Plan that bundles in all ESPN channels for $29.99 a month or $299.99 a year.

TV coverage is split between Golf Channel and NBC, with Peacock also offering live streams.

Rounds 1 and 2 air on the Golf Channel from 1pm-7pm. Round 3 airs on NBC and Peacock from 2pm-7pm. Round 4 airs on NBC and Peacock from 1pm-6pm. All times ET.

Sling TV carries NBC on its Select and Blue plans (in selected cities), which start from just $19.99 a month. You'll then need the $11 per month Sports Extra add-on to get Golf Channel.

The Peacock price starts at $10.99 per month or $109.99 per year, though you can pay $16.99 per month or $169.99 per year to get rid of most ads.

If you don't already have Peacock, try our $1 Walmart+ workaround as alluded to above.

If you're traveling outside of the US, you can make use of NordVPN to catch the action.

Players Championship 2026 - Need to Know
Can I stream Players Championship 2026 for free?

We aren't aware of any free Tour Championship 2025 live streams – this huge tournament is behind the paywall in most golf-loving countries.

Remember, though, that Rounds 3 and 4 will be on Peacock, which is available with a $1 Walmart+ workaround as alluded to above.

However, some OTT streaming services do have free trials that will let you watch. There's Fubo and Hulu + Live TV in the US and Kayo in Australia, for example.

What is so special about the 17th at TPC Sawgrass?

One of the most picturesque holes in golf, the 17th features the tee, the green and a bucketload of water in between.

It's a par three, with the tee shot over a lake (no 'fairway' here) to an island green almost entirely surrounded by water.

For the pros, it's not technically that hard a shot, but they've got to stick it on the green and the sound of oohs from the gallery as a ball trickles inexorably into the drink is one of the finest sounds in golf.

What is the prize money at the Players Championship 2026?

1st place: $4,500,000
2nd place: $2,725,500
3rd place: $1,725,000
4th place: $1,225,000
5th place: $1,025,000
6th place: $906,250
7th place: $843,750
8th place: $781,250
9th place: $731,250
10th place: $681,250
